

Sports Management Assistant

Internship for US-Students

EcoSports has developed an internship program together with the University of Georgia, Athens, GA; the University of Florida, Gainesville, FL, the University of Alabama, Tuscaloosa, AL, Harvard University, Cambridge, MA, and Northeastern University, Boston, MA. Students from other universities are welcome to apply for the position.

The interns are integrated in a great variety of different working areas regarding the operation of an aquatic fitness center. Fields of work for the student's employment are:

Business Management

- project management
- controlling
- cooperation with health insurance companies

Marketing/PR

- coordination and carrying out marketing events
- coordination and carrying out of marketing activities

Sports Management/ Fitness Exercises

- class management
- consulting of participants
- content of fitness classes

Stipend of 200 EUR per month plus compensation (air fare, accommodation, single room in a dorm) language course (optional)

Knowledge of German is not a condition.

Hours per week: 30

Qualifications: Undergraduate or graduate programs e.g. BBA (International Business, Management, Marketing) eMBA, MBA, PhD, Bachelors (Health Promotion and Behavior, Health Sciences), Master (Master of Public Health) Doctoral (Health Promotion and Behavior, Health Sciences). Internship as part of studies (i.e. field experience). Student athletes with aquatic sports background are most welcome.

Application instructions: request personnel questionnaire via e-mail

Economic Sports GmbH
Im Hagenfeld 83
48147 Münster
Germany
mail: info@eco-sports.de